We Went to Denver!!

PIMSY EHR had the honor of being invited to a conference in Denver a few weeks ago--we were 1 of 3 EHR vendors asked to attend and share how our product can increase productivity and efficiency! Needless to say, we are extremely grateful for the opportunity to share how PIMSY can reduce errors, save time & money, and free people up to focus on their clients, not their paperwork.

Not only did we have a blast; help conference attendees get clear about their needs & goals; and show them what PIMSY has to offer -- we made connections. Face-to-face, human-to-human interactions that go beyond the realm of selling into relationship building.

That's one of the things that sets PIMSY apart: yes, we have an incredible product at an affordable price. In addition, we have a phenomenal team that takes care of our clients every step of the way. With PIMSY, you're not just a number - we know you by name. Our Support team knows your company, your staff, your needs & goals, your challenges; and we answer your customer service calls with this knowledge & relationship, ready to help.

"We are very impressed with the high level of customer service and appreciate knowing that we're not just a number. We personally know and can rely on our contacts at PIMSY, and the support has been fantastic." ~ Lynn Brook
