Happy Holidays!

We at PIMSY EHR would like to sincerely wish all of you - and your loved ones - a very happy and healthy holiday.

May you be blessed, now and all year round: HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!

Update to EHR Mandate

An update to our post about the 2015 EHR mandate (click here): there are laws in some states, such as Minnesota, for "all healthcare providers" to be on an EHR by a particular date in 2015. (This includes solo practitioners and small practices!)

However, there are no penalties for non-compliance, and the word on the street is that many practices are simply refusing. Looking toward the future: SAMSHA has a new strategic plan for 2015-2019, which includes the goal of getting every behavioral health and substance abuse provider on an EHR by 2019! We look forward to continue being a resource for your EHR journey.

Only a few more days left to get the sale: 1 Month FREE

You don't want to miss this deal: we've extended our Cyber Monday Sales to get 1 month of PIMSY
